College of Education

Mitrol, Palwal, Haryana
(Approved by NCTE, Affiliated to M.D. University)

ABOUT RAMANUJAN COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

Ramanujan College of Education was established by NEC Society, at the outskirts of National Capital region, approximately 10 Kms from Palwal city. With Delhi and Faridabad, it is well connected by Rail link and Mathura Road (National Highway II). With Gurgaon, it is being linked by 8-lane expressway (Kundli - Bahadurgarh – Manesar – Palwal) link road.

The college is approved by NCTE and affiliated to Maharshi Dayanand University Rohtak. College at present offers instructions for 1 year full time B.Ed program with intake of 100 students. The admission to B.Ed program is made on the basis of centralized counseling / test conducted by State University every year.

The college is housed in spacious building providing neat and clean ambience, conducive for learning and overall growth of pupil teachers. Spacious & rich library with approx. 4000 books, ET lab with 10 computers, class rooms with LCD projectors, psychology lab with tests, science labs, art and craft room, sports facilities & multi purpose hall with audio/video facilities are centers of life at college.

The college regularly organizes seminars, fests, sports, contests for the benefit of student community. On March 13, 2010 College organized its annual contest "ANVESHAN 2010 – The Art of Quality Teaching Contest" a unique contest to judge & promote the teaching qualities among pupil teachers and working teachers. The contest drew huge participation from colleges across Haryana and NCR and set a high benchmark for teaching qualities for coming years.

NEC society is a "Not for Profit" educational society, running educational institutions approved by AICTE & affiliated to MDU Rohtak, & works under able guidance of Chairman Sh. Rajeev Mohan Kukreja.

ABOUT CONFERENCE

The primary goal of the conference is to contribute to the worldwide efforts to create a civilization of peace. Essential to this undertaking is lifelong peace education at home, in schools and in the community with its focus on the integral role of all members of society, children, youth and adults. Through the sharing of advanced research finding and proven effective strategies for creating peace at all levels of human society and interactions, the conference offers the participants the opportunity to explore ways of creating environment, families, schools and community built on the foundations of a culture of peace, a culture of healing and a culture of excellence, the three requisites of a civilization of peace.

Why you should attend:

1. Meet educators, policy makers, experts and practitioners from around the nation.
2. Present your own scientific, artistic and experimental insights on building a civilization of peace to a diverse and national audience.
3. Help to formulate policy and program recommendations for effective peace education initiatives around the globe.
4. Have your presentation published in the online publication entitled "New Development in Peace Education: Proceedings of the National Conference on Peace Education 2010". Also selected Papers will be later published in the our bi annual journal 'Evolution'*
